BOLD AND BAD BANDITTL

The Robbers Still in This Section.

From what is undoubtedly good testimony the GAZETTE learns that the two robbers who levied forced contributions upon Judge Hovenkamp and others, on Saturday last were in the town of Keller where they had their Winchesters repaired, and then proceeded north into Denton county.

From one who saw them the following description is obtained: one, a man weighing about 100 pounds, clean shaven except a light mustache; had on gray clothes, large wide brim, white hat; wore his pants in his boots; looked very fierce, and is said to be an escaped convict; the other is a smaller man, also clean shaven except mustache, but looked more mild than his companion. Both men are comparatively young. The conduct of the train which the men boarded telegraphed to Denton for officers to meet the train on its arrival, and when it reached that point two men were waiting, but for some reason unknown no attempt at arrest was made, and with a nonchalant air the robbers walked away. The latter statement was made by officer Charles Scott, one of our efficient police force.
It is not thought that either one of the Tarrant county boys have seen the robbers yet. The probability is the Denton men lacked the proper papers to make the arrest on, as Denton's officers are all brave men.

POLK KILLED.

A Negro Thrown From a Wagon Dies of Concussion of the Brain.

James K. Polk was a negro in the employ of Joe Field, esq., as a teamster, engaged in hauling brick. Yesterday afternoon as he was returning from a trip to Stein's and Rouse's slaughtering houses when near the compress the team took fright, probably at the noise made by the locomotive, dashed madly up Seventeenth street, turned into Main and when nearly opposite the Local Option, threw Polk from the wagon, and it is said his head came in contact with a post of an awning; however that may be, he sustained a severe concussion of the brain, from which he died shortly afterward, notwithstanding the attention paid him by Dr. Adams.

Polk was a Kentucky negro, and has a wife in Parker county, and is said to have been an industrious, civil man.
Polk's body was taken to a cabin near Dr. Feld's residence, where the coroner's jury, summoned by Constable Hale, viewed the body and adjourned until to-day to hear the evidence, when a verdict in accordance with the above facts will doubtless be rendered. The jury is composed of the following citizens:
R. W. Sandifer, G. W. Moore, M. B.
Davis, J. Robinson, J. G. Smith, J. R.
Taylor, who, together with Squire Furman, will investigate the matter.
Polk will probably be buried by his former employer.

A MUSICAL SOCIAL.

The Entertainment Last Night a Brilliant Success.

The lovers of good music and a free library for the benefit of the reading public, assembled in numbers last night at the hall over Fry's jewelry store to witness the musical entertainment.

The affair was a most pleasant one in every respect, and when the company dispersed it was with the wish that they would meet again soon.

The following was the programme:
1. Vocal duet, "Murmuring Sea"— Miss Lucy Souter and Miss C. Shirley.
2. Instrumental solo—Mrs. Randall.
3. Instrumental duet—Miss Shirley and Mr. Pruitt.

4. Solo, vocal, "Nightingale"—Miss L. Louter.

5. Song and chorus—Double quartette.

6. Comic duet—Miss Shirley and Mr. Harrington.

7. Vocal solo—Mrs. Kathleen Randall.

8. Vocal duet, "In the Starlight"— Misses Souter and Shirley.

9. Song and chorus.

10. Duet, "What are the Wild Waves Saying"—Mrs. K. Randall and Mr. L.
L. Higbee, Jr.

11. Vocal duet, "Larboard Watch"— N. M. Washer and C. C. Stewart.

12. Vocal solo, "King's Highway"— L. L. Higby, Jr.

13. Male quartette, "Mamerechor"— C. C. Stewart, first tenor; E. K. Smoot, second tenor; L. L. Higby, Jr., first bass; N. M. Washer, second bass.

14. Solo, "Free as a Bird"—Mr.
N. M. Washer.

15. Solo (comic). Barlesque "Cradles Empty"—N. M. Washer.

After the music a pleasant dance was indulged in.

Special mention must be made of the singing of the Mannerchor Quartette Club. This talented organization is composed of Mr. C. C. Stewart, the famous Fort Worth tenor; Mr. E. K.
Smoot, a second tenor from the world-renowned Philharmonic Quartette of Richmond, Va.; Mr. L. L.
Higbee of Atchison, Kansas; the finest baritone west of the Missouri River and Mr. N. M. Washer, a basso profundo, who ranks with the best in America. Their singing was in perfect harmony, and the tumultuous applause bestowed on them by the large audience present, showed that their efforts were fully appreciated.

Accepts the Call.

Rev. W. D. Sartwell, at present in charge of All Saints, Weatherford, on yesterday, accepted the call made by the vestry of St. Andrews church, and will, about the first of February take charge of the work in this city.
Rev. Mr. Sartwell is a young divine of great promise.

Doing Well.

Dr. Burts informed a GAZETTE scribe yesterday that George Ward, who had a leg amputated not long since, is doing remarkably well. He can sit up in bed and wants to get out to see how Fort Worth is growing. The doctor says George's only ailment is at the enormous appetite he has. The GAZETTE extends congratulations to Mr. Ward on the happy result of the operation.

Lost.

A fur robe between the depot and Clark House, on the night of January 15. Parties will be paid $5 upon leaving the same at the Clark House.

PERSONAL.

T. M. Lockette of St. Louis, representing a valuable patent, is in the city.

Mr. Lusk, bitten by the rabid cat, has gone to Dallas to have a stone applied to the bite.

P. S. Lewald, representing B. Thalmann, St. Louis, was in the city yesterday and called on the GAZETTE.

J. H. Sells, esq., representing S. L.
North & Co. Leavenworth, Kansas, made the GAZETTE a very pleasant call yesterday.

The return of Mrs. Barber from her visit in southern Texas has had a most happy effect on her husband, and his host of friends hope to see him out soon.

Mr. E. H. Lewis, member of the firm Lewis Bros. & Co., after an absence of some months, is again in our city for a few days, when he will return to his home in Boston.

Mr. Hooks (the firm Hooks & Griffin) of Kansas was in the city yesterday, and paid the GAZETTE the pleasant visit. Says the GAZETTE is the most newsy and best in the state.

J. Washer, senior member of the firm Washer & August, took the Missouri Pacific last night for a trip North.
We have his word that during his absence no opportunity to say a good word for Fort Worth will be neglected.

ALL OVER THE SOUTH.

The firemen of Chattanooga are badly housed.

The poor house at Nashville has been quarantined, and visitors are rigidly excluded.

The bonded debt of Norfolk, Va., is $2,133,271—a decrease of $34,000 during the year.

Warren county, Mississippi, comes to the front with an antique relic in the shape of a negro 135 years old.

Richmond, Va., is to have a new Cathedral costing $150,000. It will be finished within four years.

The new poor house at Memphis is being hauled over the coals as badly constructed and unsuitable for the purpose.

Thomasville, Georgia, had ripe watermelons and cucumbers, both freshly gathered from the patch, Christmas day.

Milton A. Smith editor of the Mon-tezuma Weekly, has purchased the Gainesville Eagle, and will assume editorial control next week.

An enterprise is on foot in Memphis to establish the manufacture of Mott fire and waterproof paint as an industry of that place.

The new Atlanta cotton factory, situated at the exposition grounds, will be ready to commence operations about the first of March.

Building lots in the suburbs of Mon-gomery, Ala., which not long ago were offered for $5,000, sold a few days since for $9,900.

Six negroes confined in a cell at Huntsville, Ala., set fire to the jail as a means of escape, but were discovered in time to prevent any damage.

The Warrior River has fallen slightly at Tuscaloosa, but the bottom lands below there are all overflowed, and considerable loss of stock by drowning is reported.

A gang of muck-rats attacked a man the other night in the streets of Charlotte, N. C., and it took the man and two policemen several minutes to vanquish them.

Mansion Hotel for Rent.

The above named house is offered for rent. Time, three to five years, with a sale of the furniture. Fifty beds, and will soon have forty-five rooms finished; thirty-six furnished with the necessary furniture for hotel purposes; a good artesian well; laundry, with servants room; a brick cook room with cook range, stake broiler, pastry stove etc.; dining room, cap-city six tables, seating fifty persons at one time, with side tables, etc.

Further information can be had by addressing W. W. Dunn, proprietor.
None need apply unless they can give satisfactory references, together with good security for performance of contract. The house is well known and has a good name, as well as a first-rate customer.

My object is to enlarge the capacity of the house to one hundred rooms.
Ground sufficient; no better location for such a house in the city. It is on Main and Fourth streets 200 feet, 46 feet on Rusk street—the main center of the city.

Now is the time to make a good start. Five railroads running into the city, and more to be built.

W. W. DUNN, Prop.
Fort Worth, Texas, Dec. 7th, 1882.

Wanted.

Twenty good cow ponies, well broke and good condition, 14 to 15 hands high, at the City Wagon Yard,
